

Catholic Neighbors In Faith

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself,
take up his cross, and follow me."

A Gift of Intentions

If you would like to make a donation to the church "In Memory Of..." or "In Honor Of..." someone special, consider the Wine, Hosts or Sanctuary Light in his or her name.

A month donation for Wine is $40 and the Hosts are $25. Sanctuary Lamps burn in memory or honor of your loved one for $10 per week. A special card can be sent to the family notifying them of your donation. This is a great way to honor someone when a Mass date is not available. Call the central office at 716.487.0125 to schedule your gift today.

From the desk of Fr. Paul:

As you are aware, the Diocese of Buffalo has been undergoing significant changes. One of these changes involves the rightsizing and reshaping of the diocese, which has necessitated the sale and closure of various buildings, including some of our worship sites.

The diocese made recommendations to each family of parishes and allowed for counterproposals. There was much prayer, numerous meetings and listening sessions during this past summer. The diocese took all these elements and recommendations into account. In the end, a difficult decision was made.

The final decision for the Catholic Neighbors in Faith Family of Parishes is as follows:

Projected number of active priests for Catholic Neighbors in Faith by 2030 = 2

1. Close SS. Peter and Paul site of Holy Apostles, Jamestown - sell entire campus
2. Merge Holy Apostles, Jamestown with St. James, Jamestown.
3. Our Lady of Loreto, Falconer - merge with St. James, Jamestown - sell entire campus
4. Close Panama site of Sacred Heart in Lakewood, sell entire campus
5. Close Frewsburg site of St. James parish - sell entire campus

Parishes open in family:

St. James, Jamestown

Sacred Heart, Lakewood

St. Patrick, Randolph

Secondary worship sites:

Holy Apostles, St. John site, Jamestown

Churches to close:

SS. Peter and Paul site, Jamestown

Our Lady of Snows site, Panama

Our Lady of Victory site, Frewsburg

Our Lady of Loreto, Falconer

We understand that this news is challenging and may bring feelings of sadness and loss. However, we believe that these changes will ultimately strengthen our community and help us to better serve our mission. Let us continue to support one another through this transition and keep our faith strong. While this period of change is difficult, it is also an opportunity for renewal and growth. We turn to our faith and our foundation of Jesus Christ and the Blessed Mother Mary to see us through. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

"Lord Teach Me To Prayer" is the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

- 1. Finding God in ALL things: means being able to talk about spirituality in ALL things, good and bad.
- 2. Contemplative in ACTION: means one MUST take action while being in the proper state of mind.
- 3. Looking at the World in an Incarnational Way: means believing that God is found in the everyday events. He's not out there, He's everywhere, right in front of you.
- 4. Seek Freedom & Detachment: means that we should NOT be tied down by unimportant things because they keep us away from God.

We meet on Mondays at 7pm during the school year.

CATHOLIC NEIGHBORS IN FAITH

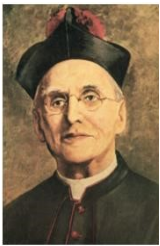

Notes from the Music Ministry at St. James Church

I feel very blessed because my parish sings. I've been to other parishes where they don't sing, thereby not participating fully in Mass. Every weekend our parishioners raise the roof singing hymns of praise. The hymns we sing become sung prayer, crying out to our Lord. It may be for strength, comfort, courage, or just a light in the darkness. When we sing, we pray twice. But it's not just about the singing, it's about leaning on each other in tough time, caring for each other in good or bad times, and praying for each other.

Have you considered joining our choir family? We have plenty of room for you. We have the best seats in the house! We come from different backgrounds, ages, and skill levels.

I would like to personally invite you, your spouse, your children and friends to check us out on Thursday, September 19th at 6pm in the church.

"She Did It All!" - The Life story of Father Baker

Please join us on Sunday October 6 at 6pm as St. James welcomes the Venerable Nelson Baker to the stage. You will hear the life story of Father Baker through a live theatrical one-man presentation entitled "She Did It All!" From a typical family in Buffalo, you will see how he placed his life in the hands of Our Lady of Victory while dedicating his life to the marginalized, poor, and orphaned. See how Father Baker recovers from a deadly infection that put him on the brink of death only to lead him to discover this lasting devotion to the Blessed Mother.

Witness how his trust in Mary's intercession transformed a bankrupt orphanage and protectory into one of the greatest institutions of its kind in America. Accompany Father Baker as he guided thousands of orphaned and wayward boys by educating their minds and hearts and providing them with tools necessary to become respectable citizens, husbands, and fathers. Listen to how he then built a basilica to give thanks and honor to the Mother of God for her constant patronage. This presentation is free and open to all ages. Come and see Father Baker tell his story!

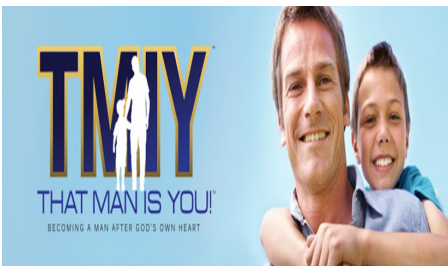

Are you interested or do you know anyone who is considering becoming Catholic?

Have you received one Or some of your sacraments, but would like to be fully initiated into the Catholic Faith?

Did you fall away from your faith, but want to Come home?

We would love to have you join Us...

Sessions will begin soon, please call Catholic Neighbors In Faith Central Office 716-487-0125.

Join Our Men's Group!

We're excited to begin a new men's faith-sharing group for all adult men in the CNIF family of parishes.

Saturday mornings 7:00 to 8:00 a.m. in the St. James church hall

(Come early for coffee and meet others in the group.)

We will watch a new video each week – and then discuss in small groups to help each of us to become better men, husbands and fathers.

To register, or for more information, text or call Jon Harmon (630) 815-6586.

REFLECTIONS

Faith or Works?

Sometimes we think the argument of faith vs. works started with the Reformation. But the second reading shows that it was already being debated in New Testament times. The simplified version of the debate has the Reformers saying that faith alone is all we need to be saved, while the Catholic side says we have to do good to be saved. Actually, they are both right.

The idea of works being necessary for salvation probably goes back to the Old Covenant emphasis on the law and the commandments. The Jews believed that keeping the law showed their holiness. They avoided anything or anyone that was unclean. They believed that their religious practices set them apart from the pagans around them.

Then Jesus came to show that only God is Holy. Our holiness comes from loving God and loving others. Because Jesus is the Son of God, he is the best way to know God. So believing in Jesus is not just believing that he exists, (like those who believe in Santa Claus or UFO's.) It means we believe in Love, the love Jesus showed by his life and death. We believe in a Person who loves us and showed us that God is not our boss or judge; he is our Father. He gives us life and protects us; he supports us and also lets us learn from our mistakes. Then he forgives us, showing that he loves us even when we turn away from him.

So if we truly believe in Jesus we believe in what he said and did. We follow his commandment of love, not because we want to avoid evil, but because we love him so much we want to be just like him. We help others, not to make us look good, but to show them how good God is. So you cannot truly believe in Jesus without wanting to help others to know and love him too. Jesus' way of saying that in today's gospel was to take up our cross and follow him. That is truly a work of faith. Tom Schmidt

Humility

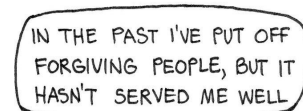

I have always been so easily influenced by others' opinions of me. I want to be loved, or at least well-liked, by all I meet. It is a natural human tendency. The compulsive need to check email or Facebook messages relays back the same feelings - is there anyone out there looking to connect with me?

It is so easy to be distracted by worldly comforts brought forth by people, as well as material possessions. In today's Gospel, Christ proclaims of the need to separate ourselves from these habits. Sometime while we're praying the Litany of Humility, we might ask ourselves if we really want these petitions to become true. To deny ourselves feels paradoxical, especially living in a society that highly values each human's right to so many freedoms. I think we can often reach above and beyond that which we're entitled to.

In Mere Christianity, C.S. Lewis noted pride as the ultimate "anti-God", which leads to every other vice. In contrast, St. Bernard declares that Jesus Christ is the ultimate definition of humility. We are so used to the comforts of the world around us. Christ also lived as a human being with similar circumstances yet made the ultimate sacrifice of giving it all away for our sake, despite our extreme unworthiness.

Today, let's ask ourselves if we know that God is who he says He is. May we truly know the truth that takes precedence over all our individual matters, that Christ suffered and died in great humility and out of a deep love for us.

IN THE PAST I'VE PUT OFF
FORGIVING PEOPLE, BUT IT
HASN'T SERVED ME WELL

“And his lord, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him. My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart.” Mt 18:34-35
