Christmas is coming soon and St. James Parish is participating in the 2024 collection of new unwrapped children's toys for our local *TOYS FOR TOTS* toy-drive this Christmas!

HOPE IS KEY...

There are so many issues facing families today, and the gift of a shiny new toy at Christmas can be just one small way to provide hope. Many children will have a merry Christmas and something to open under the tree due to this year's campaign.

It is heartwarming to know that the community supports those in need during the holiday season.

All donations stay in Chautauqua County!

For the past 23 years in Chautauqua County, Toys For Tots has coordinated the US Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots program and provided toys to thousands of less fortunate children in our community. Last year, through the generous donations received and the many volunteer efforts, we were able to provide toys to over 5,148 children in 1,850 families.

ABOUT TOYS: Toys for Tots prefers not to accept realistic looking weapons or gifts with food.

Please place your unwrapped donated children's toys in the box provided in the church vestibule.

Please have all gift donations to the church by Noon, December 20th.

Thanks and Merry Christmas!

Thank you...

Thank you to all the Sacred Heart and St. James 5th and 6th grade Faith Formation classes for collecting 27 shoe box gifts for children in more than 170 countries for the Samaritan's Purse Christmas Child drive! Also, a special thank you to the parents for helping to make possible 27 boxes to ship out!

The Star Christmas Tree at Sacred Heart & Our Lady of the Snows

All stars represent a needy Child of God. The stars tell you if it is a boy or girl and also information on what they would wear and need for Christmas. You don't need to buy everything listed on the star. These are only suggestions.

Please wrap and return all gifts to the Sacred Heart parish center before Monday, December 16th.

Please fill in your name and telephone number next to the number of the stars that you take. Please ATTACH the stars to the outside of the wrapped gift. The gifts need to be returned to the Sacred Heart Parish Center by DECEMBER 16TH so the gifts can be delivered.

The Annual Christmas Pageant

December 15th at 2:00pm , at St. John Church.

If you are interested in being in this pageant, please fill out a registration form provided by your teacher. There are no lines to learn, and costumes will be provided. Everyone is welcome. Rehearsals are from 11:30am to 12:30pm on December 1st & 8th . Dress rehearsal will be December 15 at 11:30am.

We hope you will join us as we prepare for the birth of Jesus.

Sacred Heart Church Invites You to Come Decorate With Us

We will be decorating Sacred Heart Church in Lakewood on December 22 after the 9:00am Mass. Please join us as we prepare our church for the birth of our Savior. All ages and skill levels are welcome!

REFLECTIONS

Second Sunday of Advent

Could Nachos Be Bad?

It seems the early Church had a different view of Advent than we do. Christmas was not even celebrated in the first two centuries after Christ. Easter was the original great feast of the Church. After the resurrection, Christians looked for Jesus to return in glory. They expected this return to happen soon, so we see references in Paul's letters to the "coming of the Lord Jesus" (1 Thess 3:13) or to the "day of Christ Jesus." (Phil 1:6) So in a sense, the rest of their lives were a long Advent, a time of waiting for the Lord.

In the second reading this week, we hear what Paul recommends for the people of Philippi as they wait for the Lord to return. He prays that their love will grow and mature, so that they will be able to "discern what is of value." (Phil 1:10) This may sound vague, but is very good advice, even for us today.

As we grow to be better Christians, we learn to love what is important. Remember when you were young and loved junk food? As you grew up, you learned to like healthier foods. That doesn't mean that some foods are bad, (how could nachos be bad?) just that there are better choices. So Paul encourages us to make better choices: friends we like, books we read, how we spend our free time, causes we donate to, and values we teach to our children. For example, it is good to teach our children to work hard and save money; it may be better to teach them to answer God's call and to be generous to the poor. A good way to relax might be reading a novel by our favorite author; a better way could be reading a good spiritual book.

With less than three weeks of Advent remaining, let us ask the Lord to help us "discern what is of value" in our lives. We also await His coming and we have the advantage of knowing that the Lord comes to us in Word and Sacrament. We don't have to wait for the end of time or even till Christmas, so why not try to be ready now? Tom Schmidt

Humble Beginnings

As the birth of our Lord approaches, I reflect on the idea of why we celebrate Christmas. In the American culture, is it because of the gifts? Is it because of the flashy sales? No. It is about the humble beginnings of Christianity. Mary and Joseph were not rich, so when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to Mary and told her that she was to be the mother of God, it must have come as quite a shock. I would definitely freak out if I were in her position. Yet her answer to the angel was a very humble yes. Her faith and belief that God would provide, helped her to her fiat (her yes).

I was curious as to why Luke's account of the Annunciation was chosen for the Gospel on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. I found that the Marian apparitions to a peasant in Mexico City, Juan Diego, could draw comparisons to the Annunciation. Juan Diego listened to Mary's request for a church to be built in her honor. Juan Diego went to the Archbishop who at first didn't believe him. Juan's faith persevered, and he met with Mary on different occasions until his uncle fell ill, so he went to take care of him, just like how Mary went to Elizabeth. Mary appeared to Juan Diego on his journey to tell him that his uncle was healed. She then performed a miracle to help convince the Archbishop to build a small chapel where the apparitions were. Just like the miracle of Jesus's birth initiated the building of Christianity.

With Christmas so close, Our Lady of Guadalupe calls us to reflect on the humble beginnings of the Church and how we should reflect on our own faith to be able to answer the call from God and say yes. Ben Hooper

I am the Handmaid of the Lord

Adam and Eve were created without any sin. This means that they were not burdened by selfishness or fear or unmet needs. God created the whole universe and placed them in the beautiful Garden and walked with them in the cool of the evening. He entrusted the whole created world to them, and they in turn, knowing clearly where they came from and where they were going (they came from God and were returning to God and God was taking care of everything every step of the way), entrusted themselves completely to their loving Father. They obeyed because they trusted.

The initial Covenant between God and man (like every relationship) was built on a foundation of TRUST. The serpent tricks Eve into doubting God's goodness and love for her. He convinces her that God is holding something back, and that if she is going to be completely happy and fulfilled, she is going to need to do the one thing she was told not to do. And she did it: she reached for what was not meant to be hers (at least not yet), ate the forbidden fruit, gave some to Adam, and everything fell apart.

They let trust in the Father's love for them shrivel in their hearts and decided to move on without Him; and so they disobeyed, disrupting the integrity of their relationship with God, with their true selves, and with each other. And now we have to struggle to obey and work to support ourselves and eventually die and leave our mess to others. Because TRUST has been broken and disobedience has become a possibility.

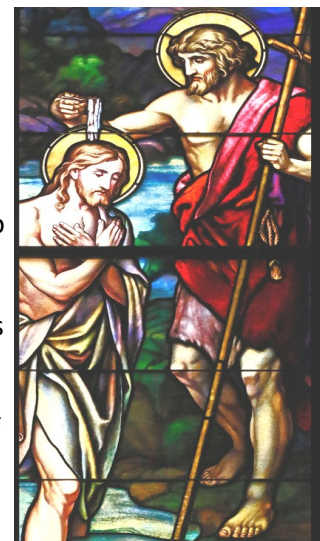

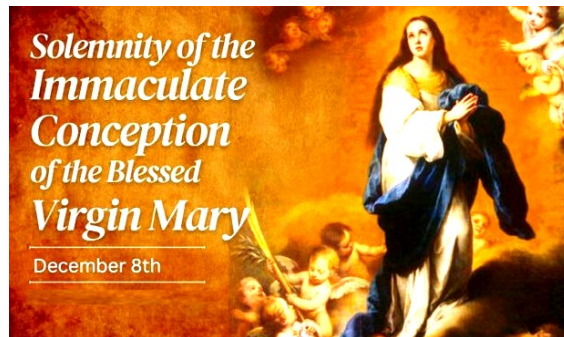

Since that moment, God has been on a rescue mission to rebuild that trust so that we can know true joy and peace. Since the Original Sin, the whole of Salvation History is a plan to recover man's trust in God's goodness and mercy, so that we might live an abundant life.

Mary trusted. She was also born without Original Sin (because the Son of God would require an absolutely pure vessel for His first tabernacle, the Ark of the New Covenant, the new Eve, who is the Mother of all the living), and her trust is evident in her answer to the impossible proposition the Angel brings to her. "Fiat mihi," is her queenly answer. This young girl, so beautiful and full of grace, submits in trusting obedience, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word."

Obedience, since the first sin, costs something. Mary knew this, and yet she never drew back from her yes, all the way to the Cross and beyond. Let us ask Mary, the sinless one who trusted wholly, to intercede for us before the Throne of Grace, that through the merits of her Immaculate Conception, we too might grow in trust and show our love for God by our obedience. Kathryn Mulderink

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Look around most Catholic churches, and you will discover an image of John the Baptist, often in the old baptistry, or in a window near where the font is or was located. He has two feast days in the calendar: one commemorating his birth, and the other his death. There are only three nativities in our calendar: for Jesus, for Mary, and for the Baptist. John's birthday is reckoned according to the schedule given in Luke's Gospel of the angel's announcement to Mary. The angel tells her that her cousin Elizabeth is in the sixth month of pregnancy, and so Mary hastens to help her. Reckoning Christmas as December 25, we count backwards nine months to March 25 for the Feast of the Annunciation. Then we count forward three months to June 24 for John the Baptist's birth. Halfway to Christmas, his nativity gives ample reason for rejoicing in the summer, and his symbols of fire and water are used playfully in bonfires and dives into the sea. Even at the polar opposite of Christmas in the calendar, the energy of Christ's birth in the Incarnation provides cause for rejoicing. James Field

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen May the prayers of Mary, the Mother of God, who stood by the cross as Her Son was dying, help those who mourn for our brothers and sisters and accompany all of us in our time of need. Amen
