SACRED HEART ALTAR & ROSARY SOCIETY CHRISTMAS COOKIE SALE

The Sacred Heart Altar Rosary Society will hold a Christmas cookie sale on Sunday, December 14th after the 9:00 Mass. All cookies will be pre-bagged and sell for $2.00 a bag. Please support this fundraiser to help support your Altar Rosary. If you would like to help by baking some cookies and will be attending the 4pm Mass, we will be in the Narthex to accept your cookies. Thank you!

Please note that the Catholic Daughters of America are conducting their own cookie sale on that Saturday. Please make sure that you give any cookies that you baked for the Sacred Heart Altar & Rosary Society Christmas Cookie Sale to Chrissy Smith or another member of our Altar & Rosary Society.

Christmas Cookie Sale

The Catholic Daughters' Christmas Cookie Sale is back! Cookies will be sold on Saturday, December 13th at Sacred Heart Church - 4pm Mass; and December 14 at St. John Church - 9am Mass & Ss. Peter & Paul Church - 11am Mass. Thank you for your support!

Knights of Columbus Waffle Breakfast

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting a homemade waffle breakfast this Sunday, December 7th after the 8am Mass at St. James Church hall. We welcome everyone to come and enjoy this delicious fundraiser breakfast after Mass!

Christmas Pageant Sunday, December 7th after the 9am Mass at St. John's Church

Please join the children from the Catholic Neighbors in Faith family on Sunday, December 7th after the 9am Mass at St. John's Church as they perform the Annual Christmas Pageant. We invite you as we prepare for the birth of Jesus during this advent season. Everyone has been working hard getting ready for this year's program.

Merry Christmas!

St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Project Second collection this weekend!

We now need your help with a new Christmas project for the families in need in all our elementary schools. St. Vincent DePaul will be purchasing gift cards for those families and deliver them the week of December 18th. To help with this project, there will be a Second Collection taken December 6 & 7 at all the Masses.

St. James Parish Scholarship Opportunity The Stephanie Frucella Gift Fund

A special fund for college scholarships provided by the Frucella Family is available again this year for anyone who is a registered member of St. James Parish and is currently attending college in pursuit of a 2-year associate or technical school program, Bachelors or Masters degree.

The application requirements are available at the Central Office. Applicants will need a letter from their pastor or the pastoral associate acknowledging participation at Mass and other ministries.

Completed applications should be mailed or delivered to: St. James Parish, 27 Allen St. Jamestown NY 14701.

Forms must be submitted by December 20, 2025.

Christmas Flowers Reminder We would like to remind everyone, if you do not have a Christmas Flower envelope in with your Offertory envelopes, please fill out the form below to have your loved ones in the Christmas Memorial page. DEADLINE: Friday, Dec. 12, 2025

In Memory of: _____

PLEASE PRINT ALL INFORMATION CLEARLY

REMINDER

ALL CHURCH EVENTS including Parish Ministries

must be scheduled exclusively through the Central Office. Requests should be submitted in writing: either delivered directly to our office or sent via email to our administrative staff. You may also use our general email address:

family@cniffamily.org.

This policy applies to all meetings and gatherings, whether organized by individuals, groups, or ministries and includes events such as picnics, funerals, baptisms, weddings, and any use of church halls or property at any of our parish locations.

Please keep in mind that with multiple churches now sharing facilities, availability cannot be assumed based on past usage. The mindset of "we've always had it" no longer applies.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in helping us manage our shared spaces effectively and fairly.

Thank you.

Registration & Updating Information

We would like to remind any members who attend Mass regularly and are not yet registered to please pick up a registration form and envelope located in the church vestibule. Simply drop the completed form inside the sealed envelope and place in the weekly offertory basket.

Remember, registering in one parish does not restrict you from attending Mass at any other church within our family of parishes. All envelopes are forwarded to the associated parish.

Updating your contact information with the Central Office is also important. Often, offertory envelopes are returned to the central office noting an outdated address or the absence of a forwarding address. If you have moved or changed phone numbers, please let us know so we can change our information.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT JUAN DIEGO (1474-1548) December 9

How well Mary's own words describe Juan Diego: "God has cast down the mighty from their thrones and lifted up the lowly" (Luke 1:52). Through him, for the diverse peoples of the Americas, indigenous and immigrant, the Mother of God became known as their Mother too. Cuauhtlatzin, his given name, means "One Who Speaks Like An Eagle," and Juan Diego faithfully delivered the Virgin's request that a church be built at Tepeyac where she had appeared to him. To the skeptical bishop's request for a sign, Our Lady showed Juan Diego roses blooming through stony ground, despite winter's cold. When he unfolded his tilma to present them to the bishop, imprinted there was Mary's image! Her blue sash and the flower over her womb were traditional Aztec symbols of pregnancy and new life. But her features were those of a mestiza, indicating mixed Aztec-European heritage. Thus to peoples too easily prone to a "clash of cultures," Our Lady of Guadalupe remains the enduring icon of unity-in-diversity, the fruit of our one baptism into Jesus, her Son.
—Peter Scagnelli

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Outward signs instituted by Christ to give grace" is the often-memorized definition of sacrament, but through more than five decades of reform we have rediscovered the power of sacrament to bestow grace by reshaping our lives as individuals and communities. Not so long ago, most people were not attentive to the nature of sacrament as an act of the Church, a power that flows from the Body of Christ. Fifty years ago, we were inclined to see a sacrament as an encounter between Christ and an individual.

Today, we see that definition does not go far enough. God's grace is not a trickle, but a gushing torrent washing over the whole Church. Like a photographer pulling back the camera for a broader picture, today we are not only interested in the person who is being baptized, reconciled, or anointed. We think about how celebrating a sacrament transforms a community. We think about the grace given by Christ to the community that baptizes or marries or ordains or confirms. Sacraments are for the good of the community. Even when it appears to be a private, hidden moment, as in individual confession, a sacrament is always for the sake of the whole body, always more than "meets the eye."

—Rev. James Field

A Gift of Intentions

If you are looking for a way to offer an intention for someone living or deceased, consider the purchase of the Wine or Hosts used at the consecration of the Mass during the month at your parish church.

Make a donation "In Memory Of..." or "In Honor Of..." someone near and dear to your heart. The Wine is $40 and Hosts are $25 for the month. This is a great way to honor someone when a Mass date is not available, or when you don't know what to give someone for a special birthday or occasion.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Adoration is open throughout the day each Wednesday from 9am until 7pm in Our Lady of Victory Chapel at St. James Church, unless otherwise noted for holidays.

Newly Baptized

We would like to welcome into our faith community through the Sacrament of Baptism at St. Patrick Church . . .

Maia Louise Walker

Daughter of Lucas & Jetta Walker

May she be filled with the Holy Spirit and received into the family of the church. That each may walk with Christ and grow in the knowledge of His love.

Welcome and God Bless you!

REFLECTIONS

INSPIRATION DAILY ~ Prepare the Way of the Lord

I remember going to Mass at my parish during Advent and hearing Father sing “Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord” (from the musical Godspell) to start his homily. I was completely confused because the singing felt like it came out of nowhere. But he went on to explain how that song summed up the Advent season. We are preparing the way of the Lord.

In today’s Gospel, we see that John the Baptist knew that Jesus’s ministry was coming, saying “I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the holy Spirit and fire.” He was helping people repent so they could be ready for Jesus’ world changing ministry. As ridiculous as he might’ve sounded, the people who listened were able to repent and prepare. Just like actors and actresses practice for the big show, preparing themselves to perform, we need to prepare ourselves for his Second Coming.

This can also apply to modern-day society. While we are preparing for the Christmas parties and all the gift giving, we sometimes forget, myself included, what we are truly preparing for. One thing that helps is remembering to fit in the Sacrament of Reconciliation to repent of my sins and be fully present to celebrate Jesus’ birthday.

As we prepare for the Lord, I pray that each of you can truly enjoy the Advent season and the Christmas season. Let’s also take time to pray for those who aren’t practicing Christians, that this Christmas season can help them see the good that God can do in each one of our lives. —Ben Hooper

THE WORD IN OUR LIVES ~ Gifts of the Spirit

The reading from the prophet Isaiah is a very hopeful description of the Messiah. And part of that description in verses 2-3 contains the traditional seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. As we prepare to celebrate the birth of the Messiah, and looking forward to His coming in glory, let’s take a look at those gifts and see how we can use them.

Wisdom is first and it is not a matter of tossing out proverbial quotes. This wisdom is the gift of seeing God in his creation. It means that we value the things of this world only as they help us to know and love God more. The second gift, Understanding, follows from Wisdom: as we appreciate God in His creation, we understand what God expects of us in dealing with creation and other people. This gift helps us to know how to act in a world that seems to ignore God. Counsel follows from Understanding as the gift of making correct judgments on how to act, how to follow those commands of God. For example, Understanding can lead us to love others. Counsel guides us to love them in appropriate ways.

Strength or fortitude, is the gift that enables us to do those things inspired by understanding and counsel, even if they are difficult. John the Baptist shows that gift in the gospel, when he challenges the Pharisees. It gave him the courage to die for his faith.

Knowledge is similar to counsel (knowing how to act) in that we begin to see what God wants for us in this world. It includes an understanding of Scriptures and how God’s Word applies to our lives. Knowledge leads us to deeper revelations of the truths of our faith. This can lead to the sixth gift (seventh in Isaiah’s text: “delight in the Lord”) of Piety. This is a willingness to worship and love God, a desire to be close to Him in prayer. Piety leads us to totally rely on God and humbly ask his help.

The final gift, Fear of the Lord, is more than just being afraid: It is the awe and wonder of recognizing how great God is, how much he loves us, and so how much we want to stay close to Him. The desire to be close to God leads back to Wisdom, where we see God in his creation. —Tom Schmidt
