CATHOLIC NEIGHBORS IN FAITH

The Options Care Center Cradle will be at Ss. Peter & Paul Church during the month of January.

Options Care is the county's only Pro-Life ministry and crisis pregnancy center. You can place your donations in the cradle. They will be collected at the end of the month.

Checks can be made payable to Options Care Center.

All gifts are tax deductible. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Sacred Heart will be taking down the Christmas church decorations on Sunday, January 11th after Mass. We know how many hands make light work, so please consider lending a hand. Thank you!

St. James COFFEE HOUR will be hosted by the Altar & Rosary this weekend after the Sunday, 8am Mass. Please join us in the hall for coffee, fresh donuts and fellowship with old and new friends.

St. Patrick's Altar & Rosary Society will be hosting a "We Made It" holiday celebration. This will be held on Monday, January 19, 2026 at 12:30 at the Old Tool Tavern. All members of the Altar & Rosary are invited.

Sign up sheets are at both entrances of the church.

Please sign up by Sunday, January 11, 2026.

A Gift of Intentions

If you are looking for a way to offer an intention for someone living or deceased, consider the purchase of the Wine or Hosts used at the consecration of the Mass during the month at your parish church.

Make a donation "In Memory Of..." or "In Honor Of..." someone near and dear to your heart. The Wine is $40 and Hosts are $25 for the month. This is a great way to honor someone when a Mass date is not available, or when you don't know what to give someone for a special birthday or occasion.

Call the Central Office at 716.487.0125 to schedule your gift, and a special card can be sent to the family.

Memorial Donations

A Memorial Donation to the church is an alternative way to offer a monetary gift in honor of a deceased loved one. It can be directed to one of our churches or parish ministries.

All gifts of memoriam are placed with appreciation in our weekly CNIF bulletin, unless otherwise specified. The family or ministry that you would like the Memorial gift to go to will be sent a card notifying them of your gift. Simply provide the central office staff with the information to direct the notification.

The memorial gift may be offered to a special church need or to one of our many parish ministries - such as the Altar & Rosary Society, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Music/Choir Ministry, Prayer Shawl Ministry or a cemetery fund - to name a few. Also, there is the St. James Outreach Ministry, which helps those in need of essentials like food and other needs who contact or visit our Central Office.

Renewal Pillar Revitalization Townhall

Saturday, January 24th

9:30am - 12pm

St. James Parish Hall

Our Catholic Neighbors in Faith has been blessed by the work of the Renewal Pillars, and now it's time to take the next step together. On Saturday, January 24, we'll gather at St. James Parish Hall for a Renewal Pillar Revitalization Townhall.

This Townhall is for everyone in our Family of Parishes – whether you've been a part of a pillar before or are simply curious about what's next.

It's a chance to:

- Celebrate the good work already accomplished
- Share how pillars will begin working more independently
- Look ahead to strengthening our Family of Parishes and the wider Catholic community

Your presence matters. Whether you're new to the process or have been involved from the beginning, your voice and perspective can help guide our Family of Parishes in our mission to cultivate disciples of Christ.

Come join us for this important conversation as we continue building up our community in faith and hope!

Men's Faith-Sharing Group

We meet Saturday mornings from 7:30 to 8:30 AM at St. James Hall. Our discussions each week feature videos from the national Catholic program "That Man Is You," combining insights from Scripture, the Catechism and modern science.

We are helping each other become better men, husbands and fathers. Please plan to join us even if you can't attend every session.

For more information, contact: Bob Hoden 716.450.3512 or the central office at 716.487.0125.

"BAM" - Be A Man Bible Study

Meetings will begin this Tuesday, from 6:00 to 7:10 pm in the Frucella classroom at St. James. We will study the second half of the book of Job.

Our Mission: "Is the Great Commission of God, of the resurrected Jesus Christ to his disciples to ALL the nations of the world." Matt 28: 16 - 28.

This is an opportunity for dads, grandfathers, Godfathers, uncles, brothers - that is every man, to share and show our children that Catholic men will; Show Up, Stand Up, Speak Up and Pray Up, and believe that the Holy Eucharist is the True Presence of Jesus Christ.

Contact Tom Franco at: tfranco@stny.rr.com or call the central office at 716.487.0125.

LORD TEACH ME TO PRAY - A co-ed prayer group, begin on Monday, January 12th from 6:00 -7:10pm in the Frucella classroom of St. James Hall for the winter/spring semester. We'll focus on this year's pontificate theme of the "Year of Grace," with a concentration on St. Francis of Assisi. Join Us! Contact Tom Franco or the central office for more information.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Baptism of the Lord

Through the centuries, artists and craftspeople have depicted Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River by John. At first in mosaics and frescoes, and later in tapestries, stained glass, and paintings, the scene is familiar. Jesus is standing waist-high in flowing water. Above him, standing on dry land, John the Baptist pours water over Jesus. The first artists to depict this were sketching from memory. This is exactly how most people were baptized in the early days: as adults, standing or kneeling in the water, with water poured over their heads.

This method of baptizing, called immersion, is the favored way today. An adult enters a font, or an infant is lowered a bit into the water supported by a parent's hand, and water is poured or splashed over them. The treasures of baptism art attest that submersion, or plunging beneath the water's surface, is not really in our tradition, and that "infusion," the mere pouring of a few drops of water, yields too narrow an understanding of what it means to be plunged into Christ's life. Jesus Christ has gone before us into the water, and waits for us there with abundant gifts. No wonder the tradition calls for abundant symbols! —Rev. James Field

REFLECTIONS

Inspiration Daily - The Baptism of Jesus

As a mother of five children and an aunt to 26 more, I have attended my fair share of baptisms. They are always beautiful and joyful occasions, celebrations of a new member being added to God's family. But most of them have also had their mishaps, as tends to happen when little kids are involved. Whether it be a last minute dirty diaper, an older sibling running up to the baptismal font right in the middle of the ceremony, or the baby screaming during the whole affair, baptisms, like most moments in life, are not perfect.

What is perfect is the sacramental and sanctifying grace that is poured into the soul of the newly baptized. What is perfect is the great love that God has for us in granting us this palpable moment of unity with Him. What is perfect is this opportunity for family and friends to witness an indelible mark being placed on the baby's soul, sealing them for an eternity with God.

In today's Gospel, we read about the Baptism of Jesus. What a powerful witness that the Son of God Himself chose to be baptized by a human being. What a powerful manifestation of the Holy Trinity, both audibly and visibly present. What a powerful way to show us just how important baptism is.

I invite you to place yourself in this moment. Imagine the confusion of John the Baptist, being asked to baptize God. Imagine the awe of the others present upon seeing the heavens being opened. Imagine their fright when a voice boomed down from the heavens. Did the bystanders run away in fear? Did they kneel in adoration? Did they stand there frozen in shock? What would you do? What are you feeling called to do now, in this moment, as you reflect upon this passage?

—Tami Urcia

The Word in Our Lives - Well Pleased

The first reading from Isaiah is a pretty good description of Jesus. It begins by describing the servant "with whom I am well pleased" (Isaiah 42:1). These are the words of the voice from the heavens that was heard at Jesus' baptism. The most significant difference is that the voice calls Jesus "beloved Son," not just servant. And Isaiah gives us more hints about who Jesus is.

The verses that say that he will not break the bruised reed or quench the smoldering wick (Isaiah 42:3) are descriptive of Jesus' mercy toward sinners. The reed and the wick were disposed of because they were useless. But God, out of love for us, never sees sinners as useless. God is always ready to forgive them and give them another chance, so God sent Jesus to forgive sinners, not reject them. In the Gospel, John at first refuses to baptize Jesus, because John's baptism was a sign of repentance for sin. He knew Jesus was not a sinner, so he had no need to repent. But Jesus identified himself with sinners and welcomed them back to God's love. We can ask God to help us see our sinfulness and bring it to him for healing.

Isaiah also says that the servant is a "covenant of the people." A covenant was an agreement between unequal partners, in which the stronger one agreed to protect or defend the weaker one, while the weaker agreed to pay taxes or obey laws required by the stronger. God is offering a new covenant through Jesus, not just for the Jews, but for all peoples. But we still have to live that covenant, by loving God and our neighbor. When we teach others about God's love and mercy, "we open the eyes of the blind", as Isaiah says. When we forgive each other, we are setting free prisoners of sin. When people see God's love acted out in our lives, we are a light to the world. As we learn to do these things, we will find that God is also well pleased with us. —Tom Schmidt
