REFLECTIONS

Inspiration Daily - Prayer and Following God's Word

I recently came across a term called "rejection sensitivity". This spoke to me, as ever since I was little, I have easily gotten upset when things didn't go my way. With my confidence low, if someone else hurt me, I would hold a grudge unless things were clearly reconciled later.

To this day, I remain that sinner who has had difficulty putting forgiveness into practice. Most of the time I can't even recall the reason why I felt offended, but there is something inside me that makes it hard to actively put myself back "out there" and say "let bygones be bygones". And after I make a mistake, I'm supposed to put myself back out there? It's so much easier to just shy away and hide in a corner for as long as I need to. How I struggle with carrying out what is truly asked of me by God!

Currently, I love to read Scripture. I sincerely ask for prayers and God's help in being able not only to hear God's word, but live out Jesus' teachings in my daily life. Especially now that I am a parent I know I need to model virtues instead of being a hypocrite. However, putting the teachings into action is so difficult! I've read that St. Augustine believed that true prayer should lead to action and by deciding to take specific measurable actions, we commit to living out our faith in Christ.

I am still working on identifying a clear resolution for how to better live out the Sermon on the Mount, but one idea that just occurred to me is to focus on one virtue, like gratitude. Perhaps I could set a goal for myself of saying "thank you" to seven different people every day. Or maybe I should set an even lower bar for myself to start out!

Lord, create a new spirit in me, a new life where I let go of grudges and bitterness. Let my excess sensitivity be replaced by full confidence in Your love above all else. Help me to be faithful to my loved ones, knowing that nothing can break the immortal bond that God Himself has established. Help me to seek forgiveness from the family, friends, and strangers I have wronged. Amen. Alexis Dallara-Marsh

The Word In Our Lives - License to Sin

In the James Bond movies, 007 has a license to kill. He can shoot all the bad guys he wants without worrying about being charged with murder. God, however, does not issue a license to sin. The first reading from Sirach reminds us that any time we choose between life and death, good and evil, it is our free choice and our responsibility. God may allow us to make bad choices, but God never commands anyone to sin.

Jesus goes even deeper than Sirach. The people of Sirach's time had followed the laws and commandments that governed external actions. As long as they treated others fairly, did not kill anyone or steal from them, they could think whatever they wanted. But Jesus taught that thoughts and desires that lead to sin can also be freely chosen or rejected. In the Gospel he gives us some examples.

The first is about killing. Jesus says that anyone who gets angry enough to kill or who looks down on his neighbor as not deserving to live has committed murder in his heart. What prejudices or grudges am I holding in my heart? The longer I hold onto hurtful feelings, the more likely it becomes that they will lead to hurtful actions. Because the Eucharist is our sacrament of unity, we should take care to be reconciled with others before coming to the altar.

The next warning is about adultery, which also begins with interior feelings. Jesus exaggerates when he tells us to cut off a hand or tear out an eye, because he knows how easily we rationalize our feelings and pretend they are harmless. This leads to the next warning about divorce. Jesus takes marriage seriously and expects his disciples to do the same.

His final example concerns taking oaths. Apparently, people would swear upon almost anything in an effort to be believed. Jesus gets to the point and says that we wouldn't need oaths if we always told the truth and kept our promises. Our faith is based on the knowledge that God keeps promises. Shouldn't we do the same? Tom Schmidt

THE SEVEN HOLY FOUNDERS OF THE ORDER OF THE SERVANTS OF MARY February 17

Today's liturgical feast honors Alexius, Amadeo, Hugo, Benedict, Bartholomew, Gerardino and Juan. A group of merchants who renounced the business life, they left what was necessary for their families, then distributed the rest among the poor. They dedicated themselves entirely to the veneration of the Virgin Mary, going to live on an Italian mountain and later establishing a hermitage for prayer, extreme fasting, and penance. Some time later, at the request of the Supreme Pontiff's delegate, six of the seven were ordained as priests. Brother Alejo, discerning the priesthood as something very consequential for him, decided to remain as a brother. The Congregation was approved in 1304 and the liturgical feast is held on February 17, in remembrance of the last founder's death; Brother Alexius shared a testimony of holiness, both in his own life and in the lives of his fellow companions.
