REFLECTIONS

The Word In Our Lives - Emmaus Amazement

Today's Gospel has some surprises for the disciples going to Emmaus. The first is that Luke tells us Jesus appeared to them, "but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him" (Luke 24:16). Now I don't think Jesus was wearing glasses like Clark Kent. More likely, they were prevented by their lack of faith. They knew that Jesus had died, so this man who looked familiar couldn't be him. All they had heard was that Jesus' body was missing from the tomb. Luke says they were debating, as if they couldn't decide what to believe.

That leads to the second point. No, they were not surprised that the "stranger" could quote Scripture. Most Jewish men were familiar with the scriptures, but they were amazed at how Jesus explained them. Even the disciples had not thought of them as predicting Jesus' suffering and death. Yet they seem to know the truth of what Jesus was saying. Their hearts were burning with the fire of the Holy Spirit, who helped them to understand the new meaning of Scripture. Their story can help us, too.

If you find you are not always able to see Jesus in the people or events of your life, you may need to stretch your faith. One way to do that is to discuss it with others. The two disciples were stretching their faith as they discussed what they had heard. Even better, debate it with someone who doesn't believe. (Remember to keep it friendly.) You may not convince them to change, but your faith will grow as you learn to express it. Another way to stretch your faith is to read and pray over the scriptures. Ask what God is trying to tell you in them. The disciples on the way to Emmaus began to see how Jesus fulfilled the promises found there. Passages that may have been mysterious before began to become clear when applied to Jesus.

Ask God to help you see Jesus in other people. Receive Jesus in Communion as often as you can (at least once a week). Trust him and expect to see Jesus both in the people around you and in the changes that come into your life. The more you look for Jesus, the easier it is to see him. —Tom Schmidt

Inspiration Daily - Diligent Faith

Around this time five years ago, our first granddaughter was baptized. Public gatherings were troublesome in pandemic days. Events that should have brought great rejoicing were muted by the fear of disease. Our pastor offered a private ceremony in which ten masked family members could attend. We stressed over who the ten should be. Our immediate family was six. Add the priest, the baby, her father, a non-family member godparent, and my parents and that was twelve. It left no room for aunts, uncles, cousins, significant others, or the father's devout Baptist family.

Worry over hurt feelings and directives from our diocese that no group baptisms should be held clouded my joy over the pending baptism. I felt a lot of responsibility for making sure she was baptized in the church and lamented my concerns to the sacristan at another church where I was an organist. He and I, a cantor, a lector, and a priest were the only ones allowed to be present while the Mass was being live streamed.

"Your granddaughter's baptism is not only for her, but for her parents and the rest of your family to receive that grace," he said. That statement interrupted my drive into pious control and reminded me that the grace extended at baptism would help cover my sins too. Rather than concerning myself with the reception of a sacrament, I had been worrying about a ceremony and a celebration.

Our diligence encourages the dissipation of the deceptive voice of the devil, who continually dares us to abandon our deliberate confidence in a loving God. Yet today's first reading from Acts and the Responsorial Psalm remind us to persevere and not allow the concerns of the day to waiver our faith. "I set the Lord ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed," the psalmist says.

On the road to Emmaus, Cleopas says to Jesus, whom he does not recognize: "it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive." Jesus expresses disappointment in their initial lack of faith. "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!" It wasn't until he broke the bread for them that "their eyes were opened and they recognized him." The sacristan's words opened my eyes to the importance of spiritual diligence - doing everything needed for the salvation of my soul and the souls around me. Despite masks and a small "audience," my granddaughter's baptism brought great joy and when a few extra people showed up our priest welcomed them. —Beth Casteel

April Dates for Faith Formation:

April 30 - First Communion PRACTICE will be held on at St. John's Church at 6pm

Dear Ministers of Praise: In April, there is much for us to lift up in prayer. First and foremost, we give thanks to God for the gift of His Son, who saved us. Even something as small as a rose thorn can cause pain, yet what Jesus willingly endured for each of us is beyond all imagination. Thank you, Jesus!

We also ask for prayers for all priests, especially for our three priests—Fr. Paul, Fr. Don, and Fr. Marcin—who work so diligently on our behalf. May God bless them with strength, good health, and continued joy in their ministry. Thank you for your faithful prayers.

A heartfelt letter of thanks was received from our local Options Care Center of Jamestown to St. James and the congregation for $360 in donations received from their March cradle fund-drive. Thank you for your generosity! Options Care Center is the only pro-life ministry in the Jamestown area who reaches out to the community with the heart of Christ.

Erie Cursillo Movement began in 1963. It is a Spanish term for a “short course in Christianity”. It is a course devoted to learning more about living a Christian Life. The weekends alternate for men or women:

Men's September 18 –20
Women's - April 17 - 19
October 16 - 18

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

“Mystagogy,” reflection on the Easter mysteries, is the chief task of these great fifty days, a “pentecost,” in other words, of grace and renewal. Every Sunday we have accounts of Resurrection appearances of the Lord, and sketches of the earliest efforts at being church. Lent is described as a journey to the font, and Easter may be described in similar terms, since at the very beginning an angel tells the apostles that the Risen Lord “has gone before you into Galilee.” Galilee, of course, was the place where Jesus did his finest work, his preaching, his healing, his gathering the lost and the marginalized to the table. At Easter, we hurry to catch up, putting our renewed baptismal promises to work in our own personal Galilees, our little worlds waiting for a word of grace, a healing, an act of pardon, an invitation to share a meal. The water often splashed on our Sunday assemblies in Eastertide reminds us: these are the golden, shining days of grace, days to nurture the heart, to speak to one another about things that really matter.

CANS FOR KIDS

There is an account that has been set up at “Don't Trash It” located at 145 S. Work Street in Falconer to help raise funds for our Youth Group. All you need to do is tell the staff that you would like the money for your recycled items to be put into the CNIF Youth Group account. It's that simple!

CATHOLIC NEIGHBORS IN FAITH

SAINT OF THE WEEK SAINT ANSELM (1033-1109) April 21

For anyone disheartened at how easily contemporary discussions of disputed Church-State issues escalate from civil discourse to shrill polemic, Anselm provides perspective. Grounded in the Benedictine Rule's balanced "prayer and work," this monk-scholar, called from his Abbey to become Archbishop of Canterbury, was thrust into firestorms of political intrigue, himself the target of warring bishops and nobles, kings and popes. Yet from depths of inner peace, Anselm wrote this moving exhortation by which today's Liturgy of the Hours celebrates him: "Rise up, insignificant man! From your preoccupations, flee a while. From your turbulent thoughts, hide for a time. Your crushing responsibilities cast aside. Your burdensome business lay down. Free a little space for God. Rest a little while in him!" "Faith seeking understanding" was his strikingly contemporary motto; and though renowned as an erudite philosopher-theologian, Anselm also left personal letters, profound for their insights on Christian friendship. Along with those, he composed "A Prayer for My Friends" and "A Prayer for My Enemies," reminding us that those who love God most passionately are also those who love others most humanly. —Peter Scagnelli

Renewal Conference

May 15-16, 2026

Hope. Healing. Hospitality.

You are invited to join us for a two-day Renewal Conference on May 15-16, 2026 at St. Stanislaus Church, Adamski Hall
389 Peckham St., Buffalo, NY

As we navigate new realities and look toward the future with faith, this conference offers an opportunity to come together, be encouraged, and reflect on how the Lord is calling us.

Julianne Stanz - Keynote Speaker

Storyteller, bestselling author and encourager, Julianne Stanz is known for her dynamic speaking and retreat ministry. As the Director of Outreach for Evangelization and Discipleship at Loyola Press and a consultant to the USCCB, Julianne has spent over two decades inspiring and equipping audiences across the globe. Originally from Ireland, she brings the warmth of her Irish heritage into her talks, weaving together faith and spirituality with insights from the Scriptures with her experience in Catholic schools, parishes and dioceses.

This year's theme, "Hope. Healing. Hospitality.," invites us to reflect on how the Lord restores our hearts, renews our communities, and calls us to welcome others with Christ-like love. In a time when many are seeking belonging, this conference offers an opportunity to deepen our faith and be refreshed in spirit.

We are honored to welcome keynote speaker Julianne Stanz, along with a variety of breakout sessions. Lunch will be provided.

Cost: $75 for both days, or $45 for Friday or Saturday.

Registration deadline: May 4.

To register, please visit: <https://roadtorenewal.org/renewal-conference>

For promotional material please visit the link above and scroll to the bottom of page.

Come and be renewed in hope, strengthened in healing, and sent forth with hearts ready to offer hospitality to all.
