Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Adoration is open every Wednesday from 9AM to 7PM in Our Lady of Victory Chapel at St. James Church.

We need a few additional volunteers to take (1) hour weekly in Adoration as Guardians of the Blessed Sacrament, so that others may come to pray throughout the day.

If you can help, please contact the Central Office at 716.487.0125. We especially need help during the hours of 1PM, 2PM, 3PM and 6PM, but any time of the day is welcomed!

A Gift of Intentions

If you are looking for a way to offer an intention for someone living or deceased, consider the purchase of the Wine or Hosts used at the consecration of the Mass during the month at your church.
Make a donation "In Memory Of…" or "In Honor Of…" someone near and dear to your heart. The Wine is $40 and Hosts are $25 for the month. This is a great way to honor someone when a Mass date is not available, or when you don't know what to give someone for a special birthday or occasion.
Call the Central Office at 716.487.0125 to schedule your gift. A card can be sent to the family.

Magnificat
A Ministry to Catholic Women

Regina Harty, from the Central NY Marian Center in Syracuse, will share the "Pilgrim Rosary" that has been entrusted to her by a now deceased man whose devotion to Our Lady inspired him to create a rosary composed of stones originating on Apparition Hill in the Marian Shrine of Medjugorje in Bosnia-Herzogovina.

This rosary was personally presented to Our Lady by one of the visionaries during an apparition.

Pre-registration is required. You may register online at http://www.magnificat-ministry.net/, click on "Chapters," select "NY," and then "Buffalo."

REFLECTIONS

From the Desk of Fr. Mark

The Eucharist as the Miracle of Grace and Mercy

The day after Jesus' miracle of multiplication of the five thousand loaves, he took the opportunity of foretelling a greater miracle which he was going to work for all men and women. He was going to give his own body and blood to men and women to be the supernatural food which would sustain their spiritual life and energy during their earthly journey. It is the miracle of all the miracles; one that comes with grace and mercy. Before the multitude to whom he was speaking at Capernaum could begin to grasp this extraordinary promise, he stressed the necessity of an unquestionable faith in him as one who had come down from heaven, and as one who was in some mysterious way equal to the Father.

Today, Jesus openly speaks of the great miracle of the Eucharist, which he will work for all. We have a great advantage over those Galileans to whom Jesus spoke in Capernaum. We are convinced that Christ is the Son of God who becomes man in order to save and make us sons and daughters of God. Consequently, Jesus is more than a man, he was able to leave to his Church the power to repeat the sacrifice of the cross under the form of consecrated bread and wine. Therefore, the Eucharist is both a sacrifice and a sacrament. First, it is a sacrifice because by partaking in it, we give infinite honor to the Father and renew the infinite atonement made by Jesus on our behalf on Calvary. Second, it is a sacrament because it is a visible sign instituted by Christ to give us grace and mercy. Under the appearances of bread and wine, it is the source of all grace and mercy whom we receive within us. Therefore, when we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim Jesus' death until he comes again (1 Cor. 11:26-30). We pray, therefore, that his body and blood should continue to bring us grace and mercy- Amen!

Shalom! Don't forget, we are always family.
Fr. Mark

INSPIRATION DAILY ~ When You Want to Shout at Jesus

Have you ever shouted at Jesus? If you have, it was probably in the secret of your room, quietly in your heart, or in your car with the windows rolled up. More than likely none of us would want to be found running down the road screaming at Jesus, even if we were just trying to get his attention.
The Greek word for "calling out" used in v. 22 and 23 is slightly different, but indicates that the woman was emotionally screaming, continuously wailing, creating a clamorous spectacle of herself. And the disciples were not happy. Let's get rid of her! She is attracting the wrong type of attention!
Some friends of mine found themselves in tears one Sunday after Mass, asking for their pastor's prayers before a very important immigration meeting. I have also been reduced to quiet tears at times as an expression of my inner wailing, tears that are the beginning, the first steps, the sure indication of faith.
The Canaanite mother cries out: "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." The very fact that she calls Jesus the Son of David indicates her firm hope and faith in him as Messiah. Later, as she kneels before Jesus in conversation with him, she shows a simple, humble trust that even a scrap of Jesus' mercy would be sufficient to heal her daughter. The "scrap" reminds me of the mustard seed, or the smallest faith that could move a mountain. This woman's inner strength, rooted in maternal love and faith, overcomes every obstacle and obtains what she needs: her daughter's healing.
Jesus doesn't refer to her persistent pleas and loud gestures of need when He heals her daughter. He refers only to her faith. "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." He does what her faith requests and to the extent that her faith believes what He will do. A succinct, well-known line attributed to St. John of the Cross sums up this truth: "God gives in the measure that we expect of him." Three maxims from Teresa of Avila help put this into context: "You pay God a compliment by asking great things of him." Sometimes we ask too little. "To reach something great, you must go to great lengths." To become wholly conformed to God's love in every situation of our lives will require energy, interior work, some tears, perseverant waiting in humble faith, and perhaps some suffering. And, in the end, "The soul is satisfied with nothing less than God." What will you ask God for today? —Sr. Kathryn James Hermes

SAINT PIUS X (1835-1914) August 21th

Presidential vetoes we understand. But imagine vetoing a papal election! Yet in the conclave of 1903, the Archbishop of Cracow (ironically, a predecessor in that office of Karol Wojtyla, the future John Paul II) vetoed the leading candidate on the order of the Austro-Hungarian emperor. Instead, the cardinals elected Giuseppe Sarto of Venice as Pius X, the first pope, after a succession of nobles and diplomats, to hail from humble origins. Nor did the papacy alter his endearing simplicity. Tailors eventually made his cassock cuffs detachable because he absentmindedly wiped his fountain pen on them, forgetting that his old black cassock had been replaced by papal white! Taking as his motto "To restore all things in Christ" (Ephesians 1:10), Pius condemned the theological innovations called "modernism," yet dramatically altered the then-common practice whereby people rarely received Communion for fear of unworthiness, mandating early First Communion and urging everyone to frequent reception. Refusing to bless troops assembled in Saint Peter's Square—"I bless peace, not war!"—he died brokenhearted as World War I engulfed "Christian" Europe despite his peacemaking efforts. —Peter Scagnelli

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In recent weeks, we have looked at the evolution of how Roman Catholics initiate children into the life of the Church. How did customs evolve in the Eastern Church? At one time, Christians in both East and West preferred to celebrate baptism in a community setting, with large numbers of adults and children initiated at Easter. The two branches of Christianity began to split on the proper time to do this.

In the East, water was blessed in abundance on the feast of the Epiphany, which marked, among other things, the baptism of the Lord. Once infant baptism was fixed on that day, local customs marking a birth began to evolve. One celebration was the giving of a name on the eighth day, another was the "purification" of the mother on the fortieth day after birth. In that blessing, re-enacting Mary and Joseph's journey to the temple, the priest took the baby in his arms and placed the child before the altar. Just as Simeon received the child Jesus, so the priest received the new Christian while chanting Simeon's prayer. Later, normally on Epiphany, the priest would baptize, chrismate (confirm), and give a few drops of the Precious Blood to the child in a joyous celebration of the whole community. —Rev. James Field

INSPIRATION DAILY: A Clever Woman of Faith

The first reading reminds us that even though the Jews are God's chosen people, foreigners who love the Lord will be accepted into God's house. So why is Jesus being so difficult with the Canaanite woman?

At first he seems to be putting her off. He doesn't answer her, but tells the disciples that he came only for lost sheep of Israel, adding the remark about food going to the dogs. He does this not to discourage her, but to draw a response of faith. He wants to see how persistent she is in her request.

We can tell ourselves that we are people of faith, but how easily are we discouraged? Do we think God has forgotten us when we experience trouble? Sometimes it is our childish belief that everything has to go our way. We may not be selfish about it; we may be discouraged by the suffering of someone we love. The woman's clever reply to Jesus reminds us that she trusted in Jesus' power and willingness to help.

Jesus was also teaching his disciples that faith is more important than nationality. They were all Jews and wanted Jesus to send the Canaanite woman away. Long after Jesus' resurrection, the church struggled with the question of non-Jewish believers. Today, we may be doing the same thing in reverse. Some people think that only Catholics can be saved and that there is no hope for Protestants, much less for Jews. God's covenant with the chosen people cannot be rescinded. Paul says that the rejection of Jesus by Jewish leaders led to salvation for the rest of the world. But though some rejected Jesus, God never rejected the Jews.

Finally, Jesus responded to her persistence. Like the woman who wouldn't go away, we can keep praying till we get an answer to our prayer. While sometimes our request is granted, sometimes God has a good reason to delay or even say no. The more time we spend in prayer, the more likely we are to listen to God's answer. Prayer can help us come to the peaceful acceptance that God only does what is best for us. —Tom Schmidt

ANOTHER INSPIRATION: Give Thanks to the Lord With All Your Heart

It's hard to believe, but summer is winding down already. It seems like just yesterday that the snow was finally behind us and my kids were actually ASKING to go outside, instead of us telling them to. It was as if the higher temperatures and sunshine beckoned us out to take part in it, to receive the warmth of God's love in the beauty of nature.

But by now we may be on the opposite end of the spectrum. Tired of being hot and sweaty. Tired of the lack of a more structured schedule. Tired of trying to entertain our kids in order to avoid that oh-so-frequent complaint of "I'm booored!" Tired of paying the elevated electric bill. Tired of being tired.

Or maybe we are feeling a sense of sadness for all the opposite reasons. Maybe we don't want the summer to end. Maybe we love the heat. Maybe we have a pool or live on a lake and are able to enjoy the short summer months to the fullest. Maybe we feel more fully alive from all the extra Vitamin D.

Yet, whether we are feeling relieved or a little depressed, we are able to understand that this, like many things in life, is a season. A season that is only for a time, one that will transform and change into another season, much like the leaves change on the trees. And each of these seasons offer us an opportunity to lean into all the graces they offer. They offer us the opportunity for personal growth and growth in our personal relationship with God.

Lately, I have been trying to teach my kids to be grateful. Not to ask me for more and more, or to complain about what they want, but to simply be grateful for all that they have. I would encourage you to do the same during this time of changing seasons. Let us exclaim with the Psalmist: "I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth; in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise; I will worship at your holy temple. I will give thanks to your name, because of your kindness and your truth: When I called, you answered me; you built up strength within me."

And once our mindset has transformed into an attitude of gratitude, we can spontaneously proclaim like St. Paul in our second reading: "Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!" —Tami Urcia

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Feast Day, Saturday, August 22, 2026

Queen of Heaven and Earth, intercede for me before your Son, guiding my life in faith and devotion. Protect me from harm, strengthen my spirit, and help me to live in love and service to God. May your maternal care fill my heart with hope, courage, and unwavering trust in His divine plan. Amen.

Vocation News: God commends those who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to His covenant.

New Ministry: MAKE EVERY PERSON COUNT

Our Family of parishes is beginning an exciting new ministry called "Make Every Person Count. This parish outreach is to remind everyone of their importance in our family of parishes. Your voice, your concerns, and your interests count in making our parishes dynamic communities.

It's our goal to reach out to all of our parishioners. To do this we need volunteers to assist us. We are not asking for a yes or no right now, but invite you to an information session in the St. James Church Hall on August 15, 9:30AM—11AM.

Come on August 15th, see what it's all about. It won't commit you to this ministry, but it will explain this process.

Appeal 2026

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
HOPE for all seasons

Please accept the heartfelt gratitude of the staff and volunteers of Catholic Charities of Buffalo for your incredibly generous support of Appeal 2026.

Because of your generous response, St. James Church has surpassed our funding goal and contributed $22,583 to support the programs and services of Catholic Charities of Buffalo and the vital ministries supported by the Fund for the Faith.

Your gifts are a beautiful witness to our shared commitment to live the Gospel by serving those who are struggling, strengthening families, supporting parish and diocesan ministries, and sharing the love of Christ throughout Western new York.

As we celebrate the conclusion of Appeal 2026 under the patronage of St. Peter the Apostle, we remember his courageous answer to Christ's call to "feed my sheep." Through your generosity, you continue that mission today by bringing hope, compassion, and the healing presence of Christ to countless individuals and families.

Thank you for your faithful stewardship, your kindness, and your prayers. May God bless you abundantly for your generosity, and through the intercession of St. Peter the Apostle, may our parish continue to grow in faith, hope and charity.

GREETINGS!

The Stewardship pillar would like to thank all who were able to attend the picnic and Tarp Skunks Game in July. The day was filled with fun, excitement and good food! Stay tuned for information on our next fun event to be announced soon!

CATHOLIC NEIGHBORS IN FAITH

Summer Family Fun!

Family Fun afternoons continue at the Sacred Heart Church playground on Wednesdays in August. All Catholic Neighbors in Faith families are invited for a great adventure on August 19 & 26 from 1:30 to 3pm.

The program includes bible stories, games, snacks and lots of fun! There is no cost, but parents do have to stay with their children. The kids will have so much fun playing together while learning about how God created the world and everything in it. They will also learn how to spread God's love to everyone.

Please call the Central Office at 716-487-0125 with how many in your family will be attending. That will help us provide enough snacks and fun materials for everyone!

FALL FAITH FORMATION CLASSES

August has just begun, but your Faith Formation leaders are hard at work preparing for your Fall classes. If you have been attending faith formation classes in the past, you will be receiving information in the mail within the next couple of weeks.

If you have a child who did not attend classes last year, please contact the Central Office and they will put you in contact with the right people.
