Outreach Pillar Message

Make Every Person Count

The Outreach Pillar would like to thank all of our callers who did a tremendous job reaching out to so many of our parishioners. Because of the size of our Family of Parishes, we were unable to contact everyone. However, please do not worry. We will have another opportunity soon to complete this important effort, and we will let you know when it is scheduled. Our goal is to reach every parishioner.

One issue that came up frequently during our calls was outdated phone numbers. Many people when they originally registered with their parish, provided a landline number.

Today, many of us no longer have landlines and rely solely on cell phones. It would be very helpful if you could contact the main office and verify that your contact information is current and accurate.

Thank you so much for your cooperation and support. I ask God's blessings upon all of you.

For Outreach Pillar information, contact: Mike Lennon at 716.640.2498.

The Word In Our Lives: Management Unfair

Notice any difference between the attitude of Paul in the second reading and that of the workers in Matthew's Gospel? The workers grumble because the latecomers got the same pay as those who worked all day. Paul has worked for the Lord for years, yet he thinks it is better to keep working than to claim his reward of eternal life.

The workers grumbled because the landowner gave the same wages to the ones who only worked for an hour. (You can imagine the picket signs: Vinedressers Local on Strike: Management Unfair!) Sometimes we see this parable as an explanation for why sinners who repent on their deathbed can get to heaven. But Matthew was more likely referring to the Jews who had served God for centuries and now see newcomer Gentiles claiming equality in the church. They were complaining about God's generosity in reaching out to all peoples, not just the chosen few. God's generosity is the real point. Those who realize how blessed they are in being called to do God's work have no problem sharing that blessing with others. When we see how much God loves us, we naturally want to respond with love and service of our own. That is what the grumblers, both in the parable and in Matthew's church, were missing.

Contrast that with Paul, who loves the Philippians so much that he is willing to put off his heavenly reward if he can help any more people come to Christ. Paul is more interested in their welfare than in his own reward. That is the attitude that Jesus hopes for in all his disciples. We can love him so much that we can't help but share that love with those around us. We can be so grateful for what he has done for us that we will suffer anything with joy. We can care more about bringing Jesus to others than we do about our own comfort or even our lives. We can do this because we know the Lord's ways are not fair—they are more generous than we can imagine! Tom Schmidt

If you have been looking for something spiritual to enrich your life, please join us for "The Wild Goose," a popular 14-part Catholic documentary and video series created by Father Dave Pivonka, TOR, president of Franciscan University of Steubenville.

About the Series

The title comes from an ancient Celtic term for the Holy Spirit, describing God's untamed, powerful, and unpredictable presence. This series invites participants to encounter God's love and transforming power through the Holy Spirit, who leads us more deeply to Jesus Christ and the Father.

What to Expect

Each video is 23–29 minutes long and will be followed by group discussion. Each segment stands on its own, so you may attend any or all sessions.

Topics include how the Holy Spirit comes to us in the Sacraments, in times of need, and through spiritual gifts.

Schedule

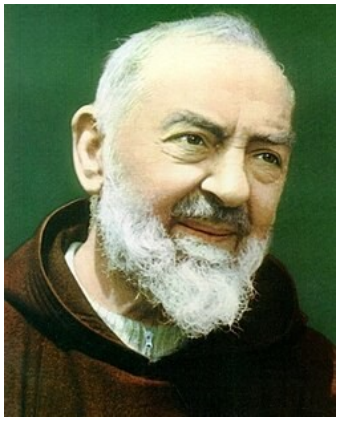
The first seven sessions will be held on Thursdays: October 8, 15, 22, and 29; November 5, 12, and 19 at St. James Church Hall. The remaining seven sessions will begin in late January, after the holidays.
We will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. and end at 7:30 p.m., so everyone can plan around family needs and other commitments.

Come, Holy Spirit

Do not let the past hold you back. Come and be renewed in faith as we pray together: Come, Holy Spirit. We hope to see you on October 8 at 6:30 p.m.

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina (1887-1968)

September 23



Did the World War II American flyer really see Padre Pio in midair, preventing the bombing of his village below? Did Pio actually "bilocate" in Italy, the Holy Land, even America, as countless witnesses testified? Or "read hearts" before penitents spoke? What of the stigmata, Christ's wounds imprinted on Padre Pio's hands, feet, and side? John Paul II, who as a young man visited Pio, never mentioned these extraordinary elements at the canonization. Instead, the pope spoke of "trials accepted with love," referring perhaps to sanctions restricting Pio's faculties for hearing confessions and celebrating public Mass, imposed because of criticism, later discredited, sent to the Vatican; of Pio's offering his sufferings in union with Jesus' passion for a suffering world; of his continual availability to sinners seeking direction and absolution; of Padre Pio's prayer that blossomed in charity, especially through his "House for the Relief of Suffering," a healthcare facility that anticipated by decades today's holistic partnering of medical science and spirituality. Finally, how comforting for us "ordinary" Christians, this extraordinary saint's most frequent advice: "Pray, hope, and don't worry!" Peter Scagnelli

A Small Request Regarding Our Music & Missals

We are blessed by the many parishioners who generously look for ways to help care for our church. Your thoughtfulness and willingness to lend a hand are greatly appreciated.

We would like to ask everyone to please leave the music and missal books exactly as they are placed in the book holders and refrain from rearranging, switching or changing them after Mass.

The books are intentionally arranged in a specific order and location at the request of our Music Director to support the liturgical and music ministry needs of the parish. While we understand that some may be trying to help by organizing or moving the books, these changes actually create additional work for our staff and volunteers, who must then return everything to its proper place before the next Mass.

Your cooperation in leaving the books as they are will help us maintain consistency and ensure that everything is ready for our worship services.

Thank you for your understanding, your kindness, and your continued support of our parish community.

Together, we can help make our liturgies run smoothly for everyone.

Please remember: If a music or missal book appears out of place, kindly leave it where it is. The current arrangement is intentional.

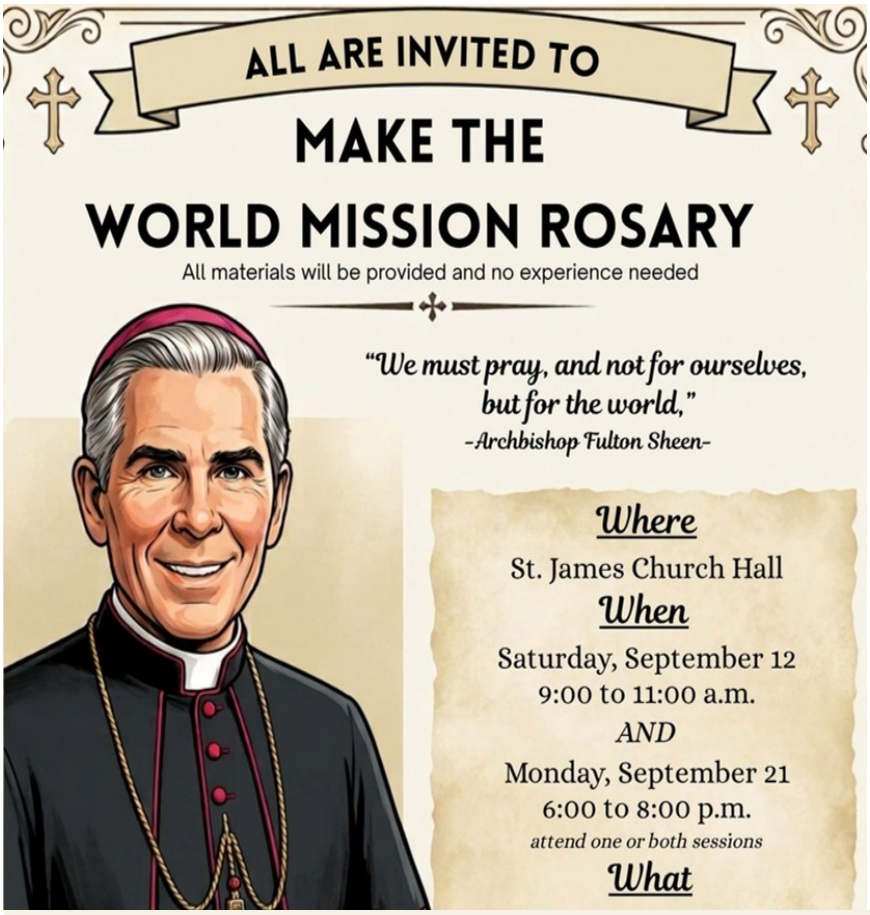
CATHOLIC NEIGHBORS IN FAITH



In 1954, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen introduced the World Mission Rosary. At the time, he served as the National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Recognizing a tendency among the faithful to focus prayers primarily on personal or local intentions, he sought a way to visually and spiritually connect the faithful to the needs of people across every continent. His solution was simple: color-code the five decades of the traditional rosary, assigning each color to a specific region of the world.

GREEN - the forests and grasslands of Africa

RED - the fire of faith that brought the first missionaries to the Americas

WHITE - Europe, home of the Holy Father, shepherd of the world

BLUE - the ocean surrounding the Islands of the Pacific

YELLOW - the morning light of the East, symbolizing Asia

Catholic Neighbors in Faith
